

EAS-CAP TOWN HALL

Analyzing the EAS NPRM: A Town Hall Discussion Thursday, June 16, 2011 – 4-5 p.m. EST

The National Alliance of State Broadcasters Associations (NASBA)-National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) Emergency Alert System (EAS) Committee is pleased to announce the third in a series of webinars on the implementation of the Common Alerting Protocol (CAP).

“Analyzing the EAS NPRM: A Town Hall Discussion” will be presented on Thursday, June 16 at 4 p.m. EST. The one-hour session will feature a summary of the major components of the Federal Communication’s Commission’s EAS Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM), as well as provide an opportunity for participants to ask questions. Additional information about session presenters will be available at www.EASalert.org.

To participate in this webinar, go to www.EASalert.org a few minutes before the presentation is scheduled to air. Once on www.EASalert.org, click “Go To the Town Hall,” where you will be prompted for your name, affiliation and email address. This information will be collected to keep you informed about future events in this series and will not be sold or shared with outside parties.

To view this webinar, make sure Adobe Flash Player is installed on your computer. This free program can be downloaded here. (link to <http://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/>)

If you are unable to participate in the live town hall on June 16, it will be archived at www.EASalert.org within 72 hours of the presentation.

The NASBA-NAB EAS Committee is a joint effort between the National Alliance of State Broadcasters Associations and the National Association of Broadcasters. The committee, which has organized the National EAS Summit in the past, is coordinating these webinars and www.EASalert.org to provide resources for broadcasters and our EAS partners in implementing CAP by the September 30, 2011 deadline.
